

KUPIDABIN NEWS FEBRUARY 2019

Dear Friends

Sorry this newsletter is a little later than I anticipated it has been a very busy month. Des had his surgery on 11th. February and is now home recovering well and will soon be back to making drum hoops for you again.

Highlight of the Month!! YIPHEE!! Thanks to the support of our Sponsors the concrete to the surrounds of our Cultural Centre have been completed today 27th February. Our local concreter and his team have done a magnificent job just some cleaning up to be done 'only taken 6 years to get to this stage'

KUPIDABIN UPDATE

Plans are well underway for our 7th. Bi-Annual Gathering of the Four Winds in September We at Kupidabin are very excited to confirm J.Reuben Silverbird United Nations Ambassador for Peace will be returning after 8 years to Facilitate Ceremonies at our Gathering. His last visit was in 2011. Reuben currently in Vienna Austria has been travelling extensively in Europe and looking forward to returning to Auz. He will be staying at Kupidabin Wilderness another week after the Gathering and we will be making appointments for Private Aura Readings with him during the Gathering and after - More about that later. A new Presenter this year Kumu Kavika Foster of Mona o Kahiko will be joining us with his Family and bringing in Hawaiian Cultural Teachings including Ho'oponopono, Lomilomi and Hula. He will also have Private Sessions over the weekend. Much, Much More to Come!

Keep an eye on our website www.kupidabin.org for more Program info as it comes to hand. Registration Form and Internet Banking details will be on line very soon. Be an Early Bird!!

Many Thanks to Claudia Ocean and Grandmother Wendy for their support manning our information stand at the Waitangi Day Celebrations at Redcliffe on 9th. February. It was a very interesting day and wonderful to meet so many Maori Elders again from the era of our 2007-2009 Cultural Gatherings. Progress is still going on at Kupidabin tidying up the grounds after the relocation of the Fire Circle on the 27th. January.

Blessing of the Circle.
